

Andrew Casto

Andrew Casto (b. Ohio, USA, 1977) lives and works in Iowa City, USA. He was the 2011 MJD fellow at The Archie Bray Foundation for Ceramic Art in Helena, Montana, and has exhibited work internationally in Spain, Croatia, Italy, Austria, Slovenia, Belgium, China, Switzerland, France, and Japan. He is currently Associate Professor and Program Head of Ceramics at The University of Iowa.

“The foundation of this exploration is a desire to uncover the sublime in these moments of incongruity; the rush of presence into experience that might otherwise remain banal and ordinary, brought on by perceived inconvenience. My work asserts that it is possible for our daily vexations to illuminate the power of the present moment – something we all too often fail to notice.” - Artist Statement

Education

- 2010 MFA, The University of Iowa, Iowa City, IA
- 2002 Post Baccalaureate, The Ohio State University, Columbus, OH
- 2000 BA, Earlham College, Richmond, IN

Selected Exhibitions

- 2021 Sotheby's, Stockholm, Sweden
The Clay Studio of Philadelphia, Philadelphia, PA
Winston Watcher, New York, NY
- 2020 NCECA, Eutectic Gallery, Portland, OR
Mindy Solomon Gallery, Miami, FL
Winston Watcher, Seattle, WA
- 2019 Via del Principe, Catania, Sicily, Italy
Rozsa Gallery, Houghton, MI
- 2018 Pulse Miami Beach Contemporary Art Fair
Mindy Solomon Gallery, New York, NY
Seoul National University of Technology, Seoul, Korea
Saatchi Gallery, London
- 2017 Puls Contemporary Ceramics, Basel, Switzerland
Aqui Siam Ben Gallery, Vallauris, France
Cynthia Corbett Gallery, London, UK
NYC x Design, Design Week, New York, NY
The Clay Studio of Philadelphia, Philadelphia, PA
- 2016 Springfield Museum of Art, Springfield, MO
NCECA, Kansas City, MO
Galleria Salvatore Lanteri, Milan, Italy

